CONCORD GRAPES (illustration above)—are the standard by which all other purple grapes are judged. Bunches like this hang all along the vines. This is the kind that you buy in the market, but of course they are so much better when cut fresh from your own vines.

BRIGHTON—One of the best red Grapes. Early bearing, tender, and juicy.

CATAWBA—A copper colored grape that can be kept a long time in good condition. Large delicious fruit.

FREDONIA—A new blue grape, very early, large fruit of superb quality.

MOORE'S EARLY—One of the best blue-black grapes, ripens very early.

NIAGARA—A white grape that is queen of all Grapes, being of superb quality, large fruit, borne profusely.

Any of the Above Varieties of Grapes—3 for $1.00; 6 for $1.75; 12 for $3.00; 25 for $5.00.

MARTHA WASHINGTON ASPARAGUS—Imagine growing in your own garden luscious asparagus like the illustration above. You will never really know the delightful flavor of asparagus until you have cut it fresh from your own garden. Strong bearing roots, 12 for $1.00; 25 for $1.75; 100 for $6.00.

ELDORADO BLACKBERRY

—The most popular of all blackberries. The very large berries are of superb quality and produced in large quantities year after year when once they are planted. Very easy to grow.

LUCRETIA DEWBERRY

Bears huge berries, often 1½ inches long by one inch wide. Ripens early. Sweet, luscious, and melting.
